Commissioner Kevin Cannon has graduated from the Florida League of Cities' Institute for Elected Municipal Officials

March 29, 2018

Commissioner Kevin Cannon recently attended and graduated from the Institute for Elected Municipal Officials (IEMO) which is a sixteen (16) hour educational symposium - the "primary objective of the IEMO is to provide elected municipal officials with an intensive academic program that will assist them in effectively meeting the requirements of their elected role. The program offers a comprehensive overview of Florida municipal government, presented by a faculty of top professionals in the field."

Created more than 20 years ago as a way to educate newly elected officials on the intricacies of municipal government in a cost-effective manner, the IEMO grew out of a partnership between the Florida League of Cities and the John Scott Dailey Institute of Government.

The Florida League of Cities is the united voice for Florida's municipal governments and was founded in 1922 with goals to promote local self-government and serve the needs of Florida's cities.

Similar to the rest of our City Commission, Commissioner Cannon is very interested in investing in his community by learning, considering new ideas, and bringing numerous and varied opportunities to residents and businesses alike in the City of Winter Springs.
