BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

Tijuana Flats Celebrates
15 Years of Awesomeness

Winter Springs Tijuana Flats celebrates 15 years of fresh Tex-Mex and active community engagement including event sponsorships, hosted school spirit nights and special promotions for public servants and teachers.

On May 16, 2019 Winter Springs Mayor Charles Lacey, Bridget Lake, president/CEO of the Oviedo-Winter Springs Chamber of Commerce and members of the community joined Brenda and Rick Brown to celebrate this milestone occasion.

Tree Delivery After Explore Outdoors

Last month, our Public Works team had an amazing experience delivering trees to Winter Springs residents! The trees were delivered to residents who attended our Explore Outdoors event in April and signed up at our Tree Presentation tent for a free tree.

We were so excited to see so many smiling faces and look forward to next year's event and tree delivery!

City Spotlight

KUDOS TO YOU!

Mayor Lacey Declares Apraxia Awareness Day

Last month, Mayor Charles Lacey presented a proclamation to Henry of the Bickerstaff family declaring May 14 Apraxia Awareness Day. Childhood Apraxia of Speech (CAS) is a neurological speech disorder and affects approximately 1 in every 1,000 children.

May 14 marked the 5th annual Childhood Apraxia of Speech Day, and the City was proud to help in the efforts to raise awareness!
