WINTER SPRINGS, Fla. --The Winter Springs Police Department is proud to announce it has received accreditation from the Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation (CFA).

Following a rigorous, top-to-bottom review of agency policy and operations by a team of law enforcement practitioners from around Florida, the Winter Springs Police Department was recommended for re-accreditation by the board.

The final report was presented to the Accreditation Commission at its annual meeting in St. Augustine February 22, 2024.

In an email to the department, Chief Matt Tracht thanked officers and staff for how well they represent the Winter Springs Police Department.

"The assessors had great things to say about you and how you all represented this agency. For that, I am beyond grateful," Tracht said.

Being an accredited agency indicates the Winter Springs Police Department meets quality standards and has maintained a high level of service our citizens have come to expect.

To earn accreditation, an agency must comply with approximately 250 life, health, and safety standards.

The Winter Springs Police Department received initial accreditation in 2003.
